

Feast of St. Augustine of Hippo, Aug 28

As a Theologian and Philosopher, he laid the framework for the doctrine of Original Sin and salvation. One of his most notable works, “Confessions,” are among many other writings that largely impacted Western Christianity. Few of his famous quotes are given below.

- 1.. Pray as though everything depended on God. Work as though everything depended on you.
- 2.. If you believe what you like in the Gospels, and reject what you don't like, it is not the gospel you believe, but yourself.
- 3.. Faith is to believe what you do not see; the reward of this faith is to see what you believe.
- 4.. Seek not to understand that you may believe, but believe that you may understand.
- 5.. The confession of evil works is the first beginning of good works.
- 6.. There is something in humility which strangely exalts the heart.
- 7.. God had one Son on earth without sin, but never one without suffering.
- 8.. To fall in love with God is the greatest romance; to seek Him is the greatest adventure; to find Him, the greatest human achievement
- 9.. God loves each of us as if there were only one of us.
- 10.. Patience is the companion of wisdom.
- 11.. For you made us for yourself, and our hearts are restless until they find their rest in you.

Please remember St. Andrew's Parish in your will and when you think about memorial donations! Thank you.
