

Sharers in the suffering of Christ by
St. John Chrysostom, bishop

The sons of Zebedee press Christ: “Promise that one may sit at your right side and the other at your left.” Jesus asked them “Can you drink the cup which I must drink and be baptized with the baptism which I must undergo?” The disciples answer him: We can! Jesus says, But seats at my right and left are not mine to give; they belong to those for whom the Father has prepared them.

Then the other ten became angry at the two brothers. See how imperfect they all are: the two who tried to get ahead of the other ten, and the ten who were jealous of the two! But at a later date in their lives, you will see that all these impulses and feelings have disappeared.

John, the very man who here asks for the first place, will always yield to Peter when it comes to preaching and performing miracles in the Acts of the Apostles. James, for his part, was not to live very much longer; for from the beginning, he was inspired by great fervor and, setting aside all purely human goals, rose to such splendid heights that he straightway suffered martyrdom. (Feast on July 25)

James 1:2 Dear brothers and sisters, when troubles of any kind come your way, consider it an opportunity for great joy
