From the discourse "On the Palm Branches"
 by Saint Andrew of Crete

"Let us go together to meet Christ on the Mount of Olives. Today he returns from Bethany and proceeds of his own free will towards his holy and blessed passion, to consummate the mystery of our salvation... Let us run to accompany him as he hastens towards his passion, and imitate those who met him then, not by covering his path with garments, olive branches or palms, but by doing all we can to prostrate ourselves before him by being humble and by trying to live as he would wish... So let us spread before his feet, not garments or soulless olive branches, which delight the eye for a few hours and then wither, but ourselves, clothed in his grace, or rather, clothed completely in him... Let our souls take the place of the welcoming branches as we join today in the children's holy song: Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Blessed is the king of Israel."

SYNOD 2021-2023, Journeying Together

The synodal journey is moving to its next phase. The notes from all the listening sessions across the diocese, and the feedback from the online survey is being gathered. A 10-page summary will be sent to the Assembly of the Catholic Bishops of Ontario (ACBO). The ACBO will synthesize the information and submit a summary to the Canadian Conference of Catholic Bishops (CCCCB). From there, the information will proceed to the Holy See, and be incorporated into a working document that will be the basis for the 2023 Synod of Bishops.

Collection: Good Friday

The Pontifical collection on Good Friday in support of the Holy Land will be for the work of the Church, the support of Christian communities, the upkeep of the Holy Sites and the formation of future priests. Please contribute generously. Special envelopes available at the back of the Church.

In Loving Memory:

+ Kevin Kiss (55) passed away on March 26th.

A private Funeral Mass was celebrated for him. May God grant eternal rest to Kevin and console his loved ones. We thank the family for including our Church as a beneficiary for the memorial donations.
