“Upon Mount Tabor, Jesus revealed to his disciples a heavenly mystery. While living among them he had spoken of the kingdom and of his second coming in glory, but to banish from their hearts any possible doubt concerning the kingdom and to confirm their faith in what lay in the future by its prefiguration in the present, he gave them on Mount Tabor a wonderful vision of his glory, a foreshadowing of the kingdom of heaven... These are the divine wonders... this is the saving revelation given us upon the mountain... Let us listen, then, to the sacred voice of God so compellingly calling us from on high, from the summit of the mountain, so that with the Lord’s chosen disciples we may penetrate the deep meaning of these holy mysteries, so far beyond our capacity to express... It is good to be with Jesus and to remain here for ever... For here, in our hearts, Christ takes up his abode together with the Father, saying as he enters: Today salvation has come to this house. With Christ, our hearts receive all the wealth of his eternal blessings, and there where they are stored up for us in him, we see reflected as in a mirror both the first fruits and the whole of the world to come.” - From a sermon on the transfiguration of the Lord by Anastasius of Sinai, bishop

In Loving Memory:

+ Olga Melloni (95) passed away on July 25th.
 We had a funeral service for her on July 29th.
 May God grant eternal rest to Olga and console the bereaving family.
