World Day of The Sick

Thirty years ago, St. John Paul II instituted the World Day of the Sick to encourage the people of God, Catholic health institutions and civil society to be increasingly attentive to the sick and to those who care for them.

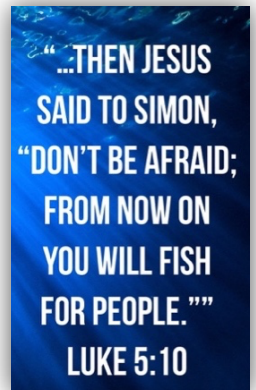

May the 30th World Day of the Sick help us grow in closeness and service to the sick and to their families.

The courage to take a risk for God's promise – a sermon by Pope Francis

"...That day, by the sea of Galilee, Jesus drew near to those fishermen, breaking through the "paralysis of routine" And he immediately made them a promise: "I will make you fishers of men" ... The Lord's call is not an intrusion of God in our freedom... it is the loving initiative where God encounters us and invites us to be part of a great undertaking... God in fact desires that our lives not become predictable, imprisoned by daily routine... The Lord does not want us to live from day to day, thinking that nothing is worth fighting for, slowly losing our desire to set out on new and exciting paths. If at times he makes us experience a "miraculous catch", it is because he wants us to discover that each of us is called – in a variety of ways – to something grand... Every vocation is a summons not to stand on the shore, nets in hand, but to follow Jesus on the path he has marked out for us, for our own happiness and for the good of those around us... Do not yield to fear, which paralyzes us before the great heights to which the Lord points us. Always remember that to those who leave their nets and boat behind, and follow him, the Lord promises the joy of a new life that can fill our hearts and enliven our journey."

SYNOD 2021-2023, Journeying Together

Where in the Scriptures can we find the concept of synodality? The story of the two disciples on the road to Emmaus is a good Scriptural example of how Jesus sought to listen to others as he walked with them. In the story, Jesus asks them to tell him their story which reveals some misunderstandings about him. Then, Jesus accompanies them to dinner, breaking open the Word of God with them and revealing himself in the breaking of the bread. This is how these disciples understood that Jesus was accompanying them on "their way." (Lk 24:13-35)
