World Day for Consecrated Life

The purpose of the day is "to help the entire Church to esteem ever more greatly, the witness of those persons who have chosen to follow Christ by means of the practice of the evangelical counsels" as well as "to be a suitable occasion for consecrated persons to renew their commitment and rekindle their fervour which should inspire their offering of themselves to the Lord"
 (Saint John Paul II, 1997)

From a sermon by Saint Sophronius, bishop

"In honour of the divine mystery that we celebrate today, let us all hasten to meet Christ. Everyone should be eager to join the procession and to carry a light. The Mother of God, the most pure Virgin, carried the true light in her arms and brought him to those who lay in darkness...The true light has come, the light that enlightens every man who is born into this world. Let all of us, be enlightened and made radiant by this light. Let us be shining ourselves... rejoicing with Simeon, let us sing a hymn of thanksgiving to God, the Father of the light... As Simeon was released from the bonds of this life when he had seen Christ, so we too were at once freed from our old state of sinfulness. By faith, we too embraced Christ, the salvation of God the Father, as he came to us from Bethlehem. Gentiles before, we have now become the people of God. Our eyes have seen God incarnate, and because we have seen him present among us and have mentally received him into our arms, we are called the new Israel. Never shall we forget this presence; every year we keep a feast in his honour."

Simeon to Mary

"This child is destined for the falling and the rising of many in Israel, and to be a sign that will be opposed so that the inner thoughts of many will be revealed—and a sword will pierce your own soul too."

Luke 2: 34-35
