Christ the Good Shepherd

"I am the good shepherd.
 I know my own – by which I mean, I love them – and my own know me. In plain words: those who love me are willing to follow me, for anyone who does not love the truth has not yet come to know it...

John 10:27

I assure you that it is not by faith that you will come to know him, but by love; not by mere conviction, but by action.... Beloved brothers, let us set out for these pastures where we shall keep joyful festival with so many of our fellow citizens.
 May the thought of their happiness urge us on! Let us stir up our hearts, rekindle our faith, and long eagerly for what heaven has in store for us. To love thus is to be already on our way. No matter what obstacles we encounter, we must not allow them to turn us aside from the joy of that heavenly feast. Anyone who is determined to reach his destination is not deterred by the roughness of the road that leads to it. Nor must we allow the charm of success to seduce us, or we shall be like a foolish traveller who is so distracted by the pleasant meadows through which he is passing that he forgets where he is going." From a homily on the Gospels by Saint Gregory the Great

In Loving Memory:

+ George Pacasa (67) passed away on April 30.
 We celebrated a funeral Mass for him on May 4.
 May God grant eternal rest to George and console his loved ones. We thank the family for choosing our church as a beneficiary for the memorial donations.
