“In our fear of not praying as we should, why do we turn to so many things, to find what we should pray for? Instead, can we say, in the words of the psalm: I have asked one thing from the Lord, this is what I will seek: to dwell in the Lord’s house all the days of my life, to see the graciousness of the Lord, and to visit his temple? He who is true life itself taught us to pray, not in many words as though speaking longer could gain us a hearing. After all, we pray to the one who knows what we need before we ask for it... His gift is very great indeed, but our capacity is too small and limited to receive it... The deeper our faith, the stronger our hope, the greater our desire, the larger will be our capacity to receive that gift, which is very great indeed. No eye has seen it; it has no color. No ear has heard it; it has no sound. It has not entered man’s heart; man’s heart must enter into it. In this faith, hope and love we pray always with unwearied desire. However, at set times and seasons we also pray to God in words, so that by these signs we may instruct ourselves and mark the progress we have made in our desire and spur ourselves on to deepen it. The more fervent the desire, the more worthy will be its fruit. When the Apostle tells us: Pray without ceasing, he means this: Desire unceasingly that life of happiness which is nothing if not eternal and ask it of him who alone is able to give it.”

Next weekend we will join Catholics around the world to celebrate World Mission Sunday. We are called to offer our prayers and financial help for the Church’s missionary work in Asia, Africa, the Pacific Islands and regions of Latin America and Europe. Your prayers and generous help in next week’s collection will support priests, religious and lay leaders who serve the world’s most vulnerable communities of faith. Please use the special collection envelopes provided at the back of the church.

In Loving Memory:

+Antonio Sdao (80) passed away on October 2nd.
 There was a funeral Mass for him on October 7th.
 May God grant eternal rest to Antonio and console the bereaving family.
