MESSAGE OF POPE LEO XIV FOR WORLD MISSION DAY

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

On World Mission Sunday every year, the whole Church prays, united, particularly for missionaries and the fruitfulness of their apostolic labors.

When I served as a missionary priest and bishop in Peru, I saw first-hand how the faith, the prayer and the generosity shown on World Mission Sunday can transform entire communities.

I urge every Catholic parish in the world to take part in World Mission Sunday. Your prayers, your support will help spread the Gospel, provide for pastoral and catechetical programs, help to build new churches, and care for the health and educational needs of our brothers and sisters in mission territories.

This October 19th, as we reflect together on our baptismal call to be "missionaries of hope among the peoples," let us commit ourselves anew to the sweet and joyful task of bringing Christ Jesus our Hope to the ends of the earth.

Thank you for everything you will do to help me help missionaries throughout the world. God bless you all!

Donations will be accepted for next few weeks. Special envelope can be found in your envelope box.

Pope Leo to Canonize 7 New Saints

In a global celebration of holiness, Pope Leo XIV will canonize seven new saints this Sunday, October 19, during a solemn Mass at St. Peter's Basilica. Among the seven are three women and four men, representing a powerful cross-section of the Church: missionaries, martyrs, laypeople, and religious. Their origins span from Papua New Guinea, Venezuela, Turkey, and Italy—a true sign of the Church's universality.

One future saint, once part of a satanic cult, converted dramatically and became a major promoter of the Holy Rosary in Italy—offering a message of radical redemption. EWTN will broadcast the event live for the faithful around the world.

Pope Defends Religious Freedom: "No Truth Without Liberty"

During a meeting with employees of Aid to the Church in Need, Pope Leo XIV reaffirmed the Church's unwavering support for religious freedom as a pillar of human dignity.

"When religious freedom is denied," the Pope warned, "the human person is deprived of the capacity to respond freely to the call of truth." The Holy Father linked the suppression of belief to a wider culture of oppression and violence.
